

Fascism Rises in Europe

 $Section \ 3$

All of the following embraced fascism EXCEPT
a. Juan Perón.
b. Adolph Hitler.
c. Benito Mussolini.
d. Paul von Hindenburg.
All of the following were common to both fascism and com	munism EXCEPT
a. a classless society.
b. a one-party system.
c. a disregard for individual rights.
d. supremacy of the state.
The title of Hitler's book Mein Kampf in English is
a. Well-Being.
b. My Country.
c. My Struggle.
d. Master Race.
. By 1935, the only eastern European country that was still a	democracy was
a. Poland.	,
b. Hungary.
c. Yugoslavia.
d. Czechoslovakia.
Hitler's main method for achieving lebensraum was to
a. attack Jews.
b. conquer other countries.
c. form a secret police force.
d. demand dictatorial power.
Nazism was the German form of
a. fascism.
b. socialism.
c. communism.
d. a coalition government.

What political and social factors led to the fall of several European democracies in the 1920s and 1930s?